About Alvaro Riosalido

Alvaro is a jurist working in the Investment Funds team. He supports clients with the set-up and maintenance of Luxembourg investment vehicles by assisting in the drafting and review of fund documentation, carrying out legal research and helping to clarify regulatory requirements in a practical way. Alvaro works closely with the team on questions relating to AIF structures and contributes to day-to-day matters where clear communication and attention to detail are essential.

Alvaro has a solid foundation in both investment fund and corporate work, which enables him to navigate Luxembourg structures with confidence and clarity. His exposure to a variety of legal and operational environments allows him to approach client matters with a strong practical understanding and to contribute solutions that are clear, reliable and aligned with industry expectations.

Other functions:

- Bachelor's degree in Business Law (Bordeaux, France)
- LL.M. in Space, Communication and Media Law (University of Luxembourg)
- Active in young-professional and legal networks
