About Delphine Gomes

Delphine is a Counsel at AKD. From Luxembourg, she advises multinational clients, notably private equity firms, financial institutions and investment funds, on domestic and cross-border financings. Clients value Delphine's high responsiveness and pragmatism in order to find a balanced solution for all parties involved in a transaction and her on-going commitment to achieve goals in a timely fashion.

Over the years, she has developed recognised and praised skills in real estate finance, acquisition finance and fund finance, especially in relation to private equity deals.

Delphine was seconded to the New York's office of the U.S. law firm Mayer Brown LLP for three months in 2019.

Delphine is admitted to practice in both Luxembourg and Paris. She is an active member of the Luxembourg Private Equity Association (LPEA) and the International Bar Association (IBA). She has co-authored a number of legal guides and publications on financing and debt capital markets in Luxembourg.
