About Duurt Delger

Duurt Delger is an attorney-at-law in AKD's Transport & Trade practice. He specialises in transport and commercial law with a focus on the maritime industry, shipbuilding and the aviation sector.

Duurt advises and litigates in international arbitration and civil court proceedings, covering matters such as shipbuilding and charterparty agreements, logistics disputes and aviation claims.

He combines legal and commercial insight to deliver practical, solution-driven results. Clients value his personal and hands-on approach.
