About Eva van den Krommenacker

Eva van den Krommenacker is an attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in employment law. As a member of the Employment & Pensions practice group, Eva advises and litigates for clients in a broad variety of matters, including in the field of individual and collective dismissal law, transfers of undertakings, co-determination and the law relating to collective labour agreements. Her practice focuses on the employment law aspects of national and international reorganisations.

Eva is an experienced speaker at seminars on employment law topics. Eva successfully completed the Post-Academic Course on Employment Law offered by the Erasmus University of Rotterdam in 2015.
