About Florian Dorland

Florian Dorland is a attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in financial regulatory law. Florian assists national and international (non-)financial institutions in translating complex financial regulations into practical solutions. He advises payment institutions, banks, investment funds and investment firms on obtaining authorisations, compliance with and the implementation of existing and new regulatory measures.

His previous experience as a regulatory & compliance consultant gives him the edge when it comes to knowing what's going on at financial institutions and the needs of his clients.

Recent work includes:

- Providing assistance in obtaining authorisations and registrations from various supervisors for credit institutions, investment firms and payment institutions, among other clients
- Drafting internal policy and compliance documents for financial institutions
- Authoring a regulatory recovery strategy for a bank
- Providing continuous assistance and advice to several institutions about MiFID II, PSD II, SFDR, Taxonomy, IFR/IFD & AIFMD
- Considerable experience with AML and sanctions legislation
