About Frédéricq Jacquet

Frédéricq Jacquet is an attorney-at-law and Partner in Tax at AKD. He specialises in domestic and cross-border matters in the fields of taxation and social security. His expertise spans a wide range of areas, from tax advisory to global mobility projects, always emphasising the delivery of integrated solutions for both individuals and Belgian and multinational companies.

In addition, he has experience in setting up (inter)national compensation and remuneration schemes, ensuring optimal implementation and compliance with relevant tax and social security regulations. Frédéricq also assists employers seeking to manage their salary costs. He advises on available tax exemptions, conducts feasibility studies, applies for tax rulings, and submits tax refund claims.

Frédéricq has been a member of the Brussels Bar since 2001. Before joining AKD, he gained valuable experience at a renowned “Big Four” firm. Since 2011, he has also been a certified tax adviser with a diploma from ITAA.

His contributions to the field of taxation extend beyond his professional practice. He has published numerous articles in professional journals and is a sought-after speaker at conferences and webinars on (inter)national tax topics.

With his strong understanding of tax matters, extensive experience, and proactive approach to developments in his field, Frédéricq Jacquet is an adviser trusted by companies seeking expert guidance and tailor-made solutions for their tax and employment-related challenges.
