Frédéricq Jacquet is a tax partner and attorney-at-law at AKD, specializing in domestic and cross-border tax and social security matters. With a focus on providing comprehensive solutions for individuals, Belgian-based companies, and multinational organisations, Frédéricq offers expertise in various areas of tax consulting and global mobility projects.

Frédéricq's expertise extends to structuring compensation and rewards schemes, both nationally and internationally, ensuring optimal implementation and compliance with tax and social security regulations. Frédéricq actively assists employers in managing salary costs by leveraging wage tax exemptions they are legally entitled to, conducting feasibility studies, applying for tax rulings, and filing tax claims.

Frédéricq is admitted to the Brussels bar since 2001. Before joining AKD, Frédéricq gained valuable experience at a renowned Big4 company. Since 2011, he has been a certified tax lawyer by ITAA.

Frédéricq's contributions to the field of taxation extend beyond his professional engagements. He has authored numerous articles in tax periodicals and is a sought-after speaker at conferences and webinars on Belgian and international tax topics.

With his profound understanding of tax matters, extensive experience, and dedication to staying at the forefront of industry trends, Frédéricq Jacquet is a trusted advisor to companies seeking expert guidance and tailored solutions for their tax and human resources challenges.
