About Hamid Azarkan

Hamid Azarkan is an attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in administrative law. Hamid advises and litigates in particular about issues from environmental law and enforcement law.

His clients include government agencies, public authorities and companies. They appreciate his specialist knowledge and perseverance.

Hamid graduated from the Law faculty of the University of Tilburg with distinction. In a field of strong contenders, his master's thesis titled 'Civil Disobedience: A Face for the Faceless and a Voice for the Voiceless' [Burgerlijke ongehoorzaamheid: een gezicht voor de gezichtloze en een stem voor de ongehoorde] earned him the prize for the best master's thesis from the University of Tilburg.
