About Inan Akdeniz

Inan Akdeniz is a partner and attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in national and international transactions, such as mergers and acquisitions, restructurings, investments, divestments and joint ventures.

Inan has a special focus on corporate equity real estate transactions, in which he combines his thorough insights regarding real estate and financial matters with his extensive corporate law transaction experience.

In addition, Inan also acts as a board counsel of large companies and frequently supervises cross-border transactions in cooperation with law firms in different jurisdictions, coordinating the different facets of such transactions.

Inan is the founder and head of the Turkey Team of AKD, with a special focus on international companies investing in or via the Netherlands. Inan works closely with government and semi-government bodies, trust offices, banks, accountancy firms, corporate finance firms and other service providers.

Inan is fluent in English, Dutch (native) and Turkish (native) and has successfully completed the Grotius Academy post-graduate 'Mergers and Acquisitions' programme.
