

Jan-Willem Raadgever

Partner, Attorney-at-law

jraadgever@akd.eu

+31 6 14 55 92 42

+31 88 253 5220

The Netherlands

Languages

- Dutch
- English
- German

Admitted to bar

- The Netherlands

Membership

- The Construction Lawyers Association (Vereniging voor Bouwrecht-Advocaten)
- The Dutch Association for Procurement Law (Nederlandse Vereniging voor Aanbestedingsrecht).

Education

- Universiteit Utrecht: Master of Laws (with two specialisations: Corporate Law and Social and Economic Law)
- Grotius Academie: post-graduate training in Real Estate Law

About Jan-Willem Raadgever

Jan-Willem Raadgever is a partner and attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in real estate development, construction law and procurement law. He advises developers, contractors and investors on a range of issues related to real estate development, including transactions, and the construction of large-scale and complex project and area development processes. His clients, from numerous jurisdictions, also seek his advice on legal actions and arbitrations.

The Legal500 has the following to say on Jan-Willem: "Jan-Willem Raadgever knows his subject, is very efficient, to the point, very service minded, good at negotiating and a very nice person to be around" and "Jan-Willem Raadgever was very professional and open to help with the questions that had arisen in the process. Helping us with the communication to the Municipality was excellent."

Jan-Willem is editor of the 'Vastgoedcontracten' publication. As such, he is responsible for the construction contract standards. He is a member of the Construction Lawyers Association (Vereniging voor Bouwrecht-Advocaten) and of the Dutch Association for Procurement Law (Nederlandse Vereniging voor Aanbestedingsrecht).