About Jasper Verhoog

Jasper Verhoog is a partner and lawyer at AKD, and works both in Luxembourg and in Amsterdam. He specialises in corporate law and financial supervision and securities law. He advises domestic and foreign companies on financial supervision and compliance, domestic and cross-border financing transactions, (tax efficient) restructuring and general corporate law.

Jasper's clients include companies operating nationally and globally, (investment) funds and financial institutions. These clients appreciate his pragmatic, 'getting things done' approach and his capacity to make clients feel at ease. According to the Legal500, EMEA Jasper is also a 'recommended lawyer in the field of banking & finance'. IFLR refers to Jasper as 'highly regarded'.

The following are a number of clients that Jasper advises:

- A globally operating, NYSE-listed fashion and clothing group on its corporate law structure, financing and financial supervision law. He provides the same kind of advice to a globally operating food and beverages group (listed on the Tel Aviv stock exchange)
- A globally operating, NYSE-listed group in the computer hardware and software business on financial supervision and compliance
- A globally operating group in the offshore industry on its corporate structure, syndicated loans and other funding
- A globally operating, NYSE-listed group that develops and produces batteries on general corporate law issues, its corporate law structure, (the acquisition of) syndicated loans and other funding
- A Netherlands-based market leader in kitchens on general corporate law issues and (syndicated) loans
- Several healthcare institutions on the issue of convertible bonds
- A fund listed on Euronext Amsterdam on general financial supervision law and compliance issues

Jasper also assists various parties with the establishment of investment funds, including the drafting of required fund documentation. He provides various institutions with guidance on the issue of securities and advises on, among other things, compliance with financial supervision law and the drafting of the required documents concerning the issue of securities. In addition, Jasper advises various financial institutions and service providers on compliance with financial supervision law, including the drafting of required documents.
