About Joost van Benthum

Joost van Benthum is a tax lawyer at AKD who specialises in providing fiscal advice on payroll tax and social insurance at both national and international level, including international secondments and cross-border employment.

He assists clients with their dealings and disputes with the Dutch Tax and Customs Administration, for example regarding tax compliance obligations and audits. He also assists and supports employers and employees in matters concerning the 30% facility, national and international payroll records, income tax returns and other international employment matters.

Joost's clients come from all kinds of sectors, ranging from IT, Internet and the car industry to engineering, financial services, wholesale, production and the temporary employment sector. They benefit from his pragmatic attitude and his focus on achieving optimal results. He also has the capacity to set out a course of action for his clients, with an eye for their business.
