About Jur Schilp

Jur Schilp is an attorney-at-law at AKD, where he is a member of the Construction & Real Estate practice group. His main focus is on commercial real estate transactions and project development. He is also involved in the drafting of development agreements, leases and liability issues in construction disputes.

Following a bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Maastricht, Jur obtained a master's degree from Tilburg University with a focus on commercial contract and liability law, with trilateral legal relationships and multiparty agreements being at the centre of his research.
