About Martijn Evers

Martijn Evers is an attorney-at-law and partner at AKD who specialises in drawing up and advising on (international) commercial trade contracts, such as production, purchase, sale, intragroup, commission, surety, guarantee, rental/lease and other continuing performance contracts, as well as sales channels (agency, commission and direct sales, distribution, e-commerce and franchise).

Martijn litigates frequently in legal and arbitration proceedings on the formation, fulfilment and determination of (international) commercial trade contracts.

Clients appreciate Martijn's proactive attitude and pragmatic working style. They tend to engage him in legal issues at an early stage. Based on his experience, ready knowledge and strategic insight, Martijn then advises them on the best way to tackle and resolve these issues.

If you ask Martijn to help with your legal issue, he will first help you assess the interests of all the parties involved. He will agree a strategy with you following an analysis of the most important issues. This will enable you to familiarise yourself with the various options for achieving a positive result. Martijn likes to share ideas so that you can optimise your business processes and gain an insight into your risk profile.

If you are confronted by a legal dispute, Martijn will advise on the approach, the costs and the chance of success of any legal proceedings. He will also investigate whether it is possible to reach an amicable settlement.
