About Nicolas Wautot

Nicolas Wautot is an attorney-at-law at AKD and a member of the Employment & Pensions practice group.

He focuses on Belgian employment law and assists national and international companies with matters such as individual dismissals, reorganisations, employment contracts and the employment law aspects of M&A transactions. His legal background also includes knowledge of data protection matters.

Before joining AKD, Nicolas completed internships in leading law firms, where he was exposed to a range of legal matters.

He holds an LL.M. in Intellectual Property and ICT Law from KU Leuven and a Master of Laws from UCLouvain.
