About Nikolay Terziev

Nikolay Terziev is a member of the tax practice group of AKD Luxembourg. He specialises in Luxembourg and international tax matters, with strong background in cross-border transactions involving multinational enterprises, private equity and private debt investors, real estate and investment funds.

Having worked in several European jurisdictions, Nikolay brings in-depth practical knowledge in the field of VAT both in Luxembourg and broader EU context.

His clients range from fund managers and holding companies to financial institutions and operational enterprises.
