About Pieter Schneider

Pieter is an attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in employment law. As a member of the Employment & Pensions chapter, he focuses mainly on advising clients on and litigating over matters relating to dismissals and co-determination. Pieter's clients include national and international medium-sized and large companies.

Having obtained his degrees in Private Law and Employment Law from the Rotterdam Erasmus University, Pieter continued to work at the university as an academic lecturer before joining AKD.
