About Robert Jean Klopprogge

Robert Jean Klopprogge is a partner, lawyer and tax consultant at AKD who specialises in international tax law. Within that framework he is involved in cross-border mergers and acquisitions, (debt) restructurings, share and debt issuances, banking and finance transactions and structured finance transactions.

Robert Jean's clients include primarily North American multinationals, investment funds (private equity, hedge funds and venture capital), financial institutions and pension funds. His clients appreciate his businesslike approach, his pragmatic tax advice and his capacity to reach suitable agreements in complex negotiations.
