About Rosanne Vlasveld

Rosanne Vlasveld is a lawyer at AKD who specialises in international public law and corporate law. Rosanne's clients are national and international companies who she advises and represents in relation to mergers and acquisitions.

For example she advises on private equity deals and venture capital investments, closed sales processes, management buyouts and other transactions. She also carries out legal due diligence investigations (including coordination) and drafts various contracts such as purchase, sale and shareholder agreements.

She also has plenty of experience with drawing up and assessing all kinds of (commercial) contracts, such as (convertible) loan agreements, management agreements, joint venture agreements and other (partnership) agreements.

Lastly, Rosanne supports clients regularly in litigation and legal disputes, including cases relating to, among other things, the fulfilment and termination of agreements, corporate governance and unfair competition.
