About Sabine Jansen

Sabine is an attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in dealing with corporate and financial disputes. She advises and litigates on a wide range of topics, including:

- disputes between shareholders and directors
- security provided (pledges, mortgages, personal surety and retention of title)
- D&O liability
- attachment, garnishment, seizure and execution/foreclosure
- disputes over funding
- shareholder buy-outs, exits and/or squeeze-outs
- corporate decision-taking processes
- B2B agreements

Sabine represents entrepreneurs, directors and officers, financiers, family offices, private equity houses and banks.

She also provides legal advice on national and international restructuring projects.

Sabine is an efficient and pragmatic attorney-at-law with a good grasp of numbers. Her capacity to think as an entrepreneur enables her to remain calm in crisis situations. She has special affinity for family-owned companies through her personal background.

Sabine is regularly appointed trustee in bankruptcies. Well-versed with the flip side of the coin, she is perfectly positioned to advise distressed companies.
