About Sabrina van Luijk-Weterings

Sabrina van Luijk-Weterings is a tax compliance specialist at AKD and responsible for the tax return practice. She prepares corporate tax and personal income tax returns for clients. She advises clients on their tax returns and maintains contacts with the tax authorities for her clients. She also assists clients in preparing the tax position reported in their annual accounts.

Sabrina's clients include chemical, high-tech, entertainment, cosmetics and real-estate companies and are often directors owning private companies.

Sabrina graduated in Fiscal Economics from the Erasmus University of Rotterdam, having first completed a Management, Economics and Law study at the Utrecht University of Applied Sciences.
