About Vincent Wibaut

Until 1 June 2025, Vincent was a partner and solicitor at AKD, with over thirty years of experience in corporate law. Over the years, he was involved in numerous acquisitions, restructurings and shareholder disputes, with a particular focus on matters involving partnerships. He advised, among other things, on the structuring of professional partnerships and general partnerships, as well as disputes concerning the withdrawal of partners.

Vincent also has extensive experience in the setting up of joint ventures and the structuring of partnerships. According to the European Legal 500 he is 'fast, committed and offers value for money'.

In addition to his practice, Vincent is also a personal adviser to various management boards and also regularly acts as an arbitrator.
